Dahlberg, Keith

Note: Returning to Burma to teach for a month, Dr. George Daniels and his wife, Vienna, had not expected to get involved in a war. But a renegade colonel disrupts the balance of power between the dictatorship and the insurgent hill armies, flooding the Thai border with refugees. George discovers information crucial to ending the conflict - and his wife is held hostage to prevent his using it - at the

A demographic perspective on women in development in Cambodia, Lao People's Democratic Republic, Myanmar and Viet Nam / Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific. -- New York : United Nations, 1998. xvi, 135 p., illus., bibliogr. ref. -- (Asian population studies series ; 148) -- ST/ESCAP/1869 - T.p. verso. -- The study was prepared by the ESCAP Population Division ... - p. III.

ISBN 9211198429

Note: The International Conference on Population and Development at Cairo in 1994, addressed the empowerment and autonomy of women and also stressed the importance of education. This publication presents the findings of a study on the status of women in development in Cambodia, the Lao People's Democratic Republic, Myanmar and Viet Nam. Detailed data and analysis are provided for each country, and a comparative discussion, including policy implications of the findings, is presented.

Note: Written by a seasoned expert on international business development, this guide distills a library's worth of essential knowledge into a single, practical volume. It allows readers to quickly acquaint themselves with nineteen foreign lands and learn the finer points of conducting business within each distinctive culture. Newly updated to address recent economic, political, and regulatory developments - and including a new appendix on the spread and use of technology in the region - this book covers the following topics regarding each country: geography, history, political structure, social customs, work schedules, making contacts, meeting people, corporate structures, negotiation, conducting business in social settings, dress codes, useful phrases, major holidays, helpful phone numbers, and useful addresses.
Subject(s): Burma : International business enterprises ; Intercultural communication ; Foreign trade regulation ; Investments, Foreign ; Economic conditions - 1945- ; Foreign economic relations.
